Europe for Citizens Programme

Programme objectives:

Under the overall aim of bringing the Union closer to citizens the general objectives are:

- to contribute to citizens' understanding of the Union, its history and diversity;
- to foster European citizenship and to improve conditions for civic and democratic participation at Union level.

The Programme's specific objectives are:

- raise awareness of remembrance, common history and values and the Union's aim that is to promote peace, its values and the well-being of its peoples by stimulating debate, reflection and development of networks;
- encourage democratic and civic participation of citizens at Union level, by developing citizens' understanding of the Union policy making-process and promoting opportunities for societal and intercultural engagement and volunteering at Union level.

Europe for Citizens Programme

Structure of the Europe for Citizens Programme:

The Programme is implemented through two Strands and a horizontal Action:

Strand 1: European remembrance: Raise awareness of remembrance, common history and values and the Union's aim.

Strand 2: Democratic engagement and civic participation: Encourage democratic and civic participation of citizens at Union level. Measures in this strand are:

Town Twinning

Networks of Towns

Civil Society Projects

Horizontal Action: Valorisation: Analysis, dissemination and use of project results.

There are two types of grants:

ACTION GRANTS can be granted for projects (within both strands), i.e. for actions with a limited lifetime during which proposed specific activities are implemented.

OPERATING GRANTS are different from action grants in that they provide financial support for costs required for the proper conduct of the usual and permanent activities of an organisation.

Authentic Europe Project

Aims and Objectives:

The project's main objective is to create a sustainable Network of small municipalities with little experience at European level in order to facilitate international cooperation and exchange of good practices among them in the field of rural tourism. More specifically the project aims are:

- to encourage a fuller exploitation of the existing natural and cultural resources in the rural areas, encompassing folk arts (music, dance, and rituals), ethnography, customs, traditional food and beverage, handicrafts, natural healing practices etc.;
- to introduce tools and methods for effective networking to stakeholders;
- to promote sustainability, competitiveness and respect of local identities; to reinforce the sense of European citizenship by strengthening the relations between European local communities.

The target groups are: public authorities, citizens; youth; seniors; small and medium businesses; cultural and tourism organizations.

The „Building strong destination image“ workshop in Bulgaria focused on the building of strong destination image, differentiating the tourism offer and building a unique “brand” of the Network, as well as on the achieved results and future development of the Network.

The “Rural tourism and entrepreneurship” forum in Spain will focus on the importance of inter-generational learning, the preservation of the intangible heritage and its implications for rural tourism and entrepreneurship.

The Authentic Europe Web Portal - www.authen.eu - was also created to represent the Network, and provide up to date and useful information related to the activities of the Network, as well as useful information related to the development of Rural Europe.

The Kick off Meeting

The Kick-off meeting was held in Strumyani, Bulgaria in the period 24-26 October 2014, where representatives of the 5 European partners gathered to lay the foundation of the network, the rules and principles for management, coordination, communication, evaluation and dissemination. During the three - day long workshops the partners presented and discussed the rural tourism offer of their respective municipalities, their needs and challenges, as well as possible solutions to be sought through networking. The exchange of experiences and know-how allowed the experts to identify the common ground for cooperation. The kick-off meeting was organized during the international folklore festival “Maleshevo Sings and Dances”, which allowed the host, not only

Transhumance

- It is an ancient practice which consist in the seasonal movement of the shepherds with their flocks, it implies the movement from mountains to plains before winter and vice versa in the summer.
- This is a real adventure that until the fifties of the last century animated streets and trails of the island
- TRAMUDAS project: Transhumance has become now, thanks to the initiative of the GALs (Local action groups), a tourist attraction which allow tourists to discover the history, culture and environment of Sardinia Island.
- UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage

- The aim of the project is to revitalize the agro-pastoral culture retracting the same steps made by the shepherds and converting them into new forms of touristic travels.
- The main products of this project are:
 - the map of transhumance
 - cultural tourism circuits and guided trails with appropriate signage
 - a guide book
 - a website www.tramudas.com

Funding: the project is founded by the Programme LEADER +
which is an European programme for rural areas

Main organizers: - GAL Mari e Monti
- GAL Barbagie e Mandrolisai
- GAL Ogliastra

Period: All year long. Tramudas is a product that allows to extend the tourist season, in view of the integration of products "Sea – Mountain"

Participants: Local, domestic and international tourists

Audience: Tourists in general

Importance:

- ✓ recovery of these historical trails in a tourist key
- ✓ local development : the local farms are an integral part of the transhumance product as they offer shepherds products to tourists
- ✓ a way to reduce the seasonality
- ✓ interaction with other Sardinian cultural events linked to intangible cultural heritage (eg. Autumn in Barbagia, etc.)

Programme of the European Union

Turning traditional magical practices into tourist attractions - working with local authorities

1. Origin and symbolization of the ritual

In 1652 the plague was raging in Sardinia. The authorities of Cagliari sought aid making a solemn vow to Sant'Ef시오, a Roman soldier who had promised to protect forever the city and its inhabitants. With this vow, the municipality promised to take the statue of the Saint in procession from the place where he was imprisoned (city center) to the beach of Nora, The plague ended. Since then, every year Cagliari fulfills its vow.

1. Performance

The Fest of Sant'Ef시오 assembles the devoted to the Saint, the tradition dresses and the colours of entire Sardinia in a moving and grand procession.

St.Lazar's Day in Strumyani Municipality

• 1. Origin and symbolism

- The St.LAZAR'S DAY is celebrated every year on Saturday – one week before Easter in Bulgaria and in all Orthodox world as well.
- It shows the beginning of Easter celebrations and it is always in the Spring time when the nature “wakes up” for new life.
- This celebration and all rituals during the day are related to the Spring, the fertility and the prolongation of life and family.

3. Participants and Performance

- Young girls early in the morning go up in the mountain to pick up flowers and osier. They knit chaplets and sing ritual songs.
- In this ritual participate only girls on age for getting married . They wear special “folklore costumes” showing their status of soon getting married girls.
- After that the young girls, called “LAZARKI”, go to the church where on that day there is an orthodox service dedicated to St.Lazar.
- After the Service they receive gifts and blessing from the priest and start walking from home to home to spread among the people this blessing for fertility, health and prolongation of the families.

- At every house these “LAZARKI” girls sing ritual songs for blessing householders, their children, animals, plants and even bees.
- According to the tradition these girls receive eggs and gifts.
- It is very important “LAZARKI” girls to come in every house, because that household will be blessed for the whole year.
- This ritual finishes on the next morning when the “LAZARKI” girls float their osier chaplets into rivers.

4. Organizers of the Ritual

- “Lazarki” girls are dancers and singers from the folklore groups from the Community centers.
- For preserving this ritual in present days the Teachers in the Kindergarden organize the young 4,5 and 6 years old girls to participate in all these activities.
- They start learning the songs in the Community centers and in the Kindergarden minimum 3 months in advance.
- Strumyani Municipality provides 3 persons for organizing the event:
- An employee who is in charge to coordinate the schedule visits of the groups 2 weeks before the real Fest;
- PR employee who is in charge to advertise in different media the event before and after its happening ;
- One photographer.

5. Funding

- Funding of this Ritual is not expensive.
- There is only a first investment for buying and delivery of the Folklore costumes of the participants.
- After that salaries and fees for Community centers ' managers, teachers, PR-employee and the photographer.
- Information for the event is mainly spread through the local new papers, web sites, touristic centers and facebook profiles.

6. Audience and importance of the ritual

- This ritual has mainly local importance, but it has enormous opportunities to attract and be enjoyed by tourists. It happens in Spring time when is the high tourist season for Strumyani region and near Spa resort Sandanski.
- The beautiful mountain nature “wakes up” early in South – Western Bulgaria where are located the villages of Strumyani Municipality.
- These factors, together with the magnificent and colorful St.Lazar's day ritual become and exquisite attraction for tourists who would like to touch a unique tradition, beauty and gorgeous nature.

Active Citizenship in the EU

- Civil dialogue

- A democratic citizenship which implies that European institutions enjoy public confidence and can secure active involvement of citizens and organised civil society players in the decision-making processes at all levels, from local and national to European one;

- Participation in elections

- A democratic citizenship which guarantees that citizens have a say in the EU policy-shaping and decision-making processes by electing their representatives to the European Parliament.

Active Citizenship and Tourism

- Participation in local governance

- A democratic citizenship which performance must also operate at Member States' level, so that the structures for citizens' engagement are accessible and form part of every citizen's experience. While benefiting of their rights and taking their responsibilities, EU citizens should be fully involved in decision making processes on local level, through enhancing cooperation with local authorities as one of the main stakeholders of the EU

- Social citizenship

- A democratic citizenship that guarantees that all citizens can participate in the life of their communities and the shaping of public policies, including the most disadvantaged groups which are more than often the most remote from the European building process.

Active Citizenship and Tourism

What is the relationship between Active Citizenship and Tourism?

- Developing a competitive tourism offer depends on the cooperation and joint effort of all stakeholders, directly and indirectly involved with the tourism market.
- The EU has identified key priorities and has developed policies and action plans intended to strengthen the EU tourism sector. The key priorities are:
 1. Increase tourism activity and productivity
 2. Create quality employment
 3. Stimulate a single market
 4. Improve international positioning
 5. Improve the coherence and recognition of the 'Spain' brand
 6. Encourage public-private co-responsibility
 7. Reduce the seasonality of tourism
 8. Promoting awareness, entrepreneurship and training
 9. Improving the offer
 10. Diversifying the demand

The importance of Public – Private cooperation for Tourism

- Civil society and the private sector are the main source of innovation and creativity
- Public authorities, being in charge of the decision- making processes and policy implementation can either boost economic activity through cooperation with the local stakeholders, or slow it down through inadequate policy making and implementation.

Civil society – Public authorities cooperation models

1. Local authorities supporting civil society initiatives

a) Mechanisms for encouraging innovation, creativity and ideas generation:

- Through specifically designed councils/clusters, composed of relevant stakeholders
- Through contests and calls for proposals

2. Public – private partnerships

- a) PPPs encourage:
- CREATIVITY and IDEAS
- ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT and INITIATIVES
- MUTUAL TRUST between PUBLIC AUTHORITIES and CITIZENS
- RESPONSIBILITY and UNDERSTANDING
- ACCESS to INVESTMENTS and FUNDING

The Importance of Networking for Tourism

- Cross – marketing and common product development
- Joint branding and promotion of local heritage
- Increased visibility of local heritage through a larger network, branding, and cross-referencing
- Ongoing exchange of good practices and diversification of local tourism offer
- Decrease in marketing and promotion expenses.

Authentic Europe Network Structure and Regulation

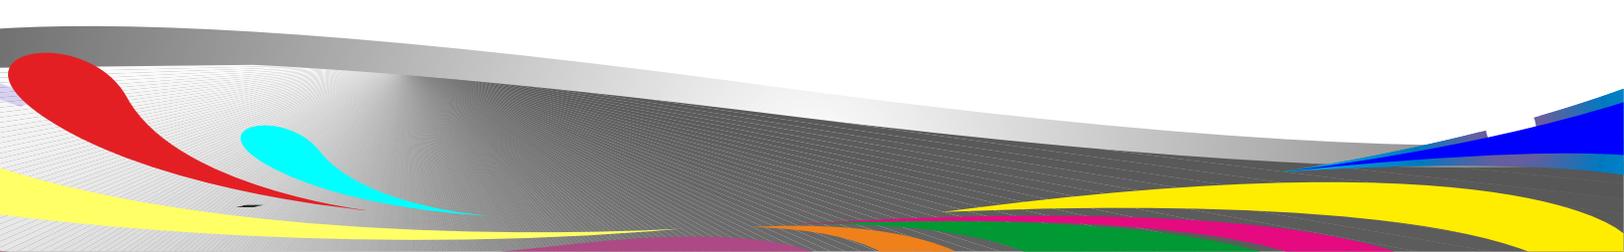

Background and Objectives

The Authentic Europe Network has been established within the framework of the “Authentic Europe” project, co-funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union, Strand 2 Democratic engagement and civic participation: Encourage democratic and civic participation of citizens at Union level. Measure: Networks of Towns.

The project’s main objective is to create a sustainable Network of small municipalities with little experience at European level in order to facilitate international cooperation and exchange of good practices among them in the field of rural tourism. More specifically the project aims are:

- to encourage a fuller exploitation of the existing natural and cultural resources in the rural areas, encompassing folk arts (music, dance, and rituals), ethnography, customs, traditional food and beverage, handicrafts, natural healing practices etc.;
- to introduce tools and methods for effective networking to stakeholders;
- to promote sustainability, competitiveness and respect of local identities; to reinforce the sense of European citizenship by strengthening the relations between European local communities.

The target groups are: public authorities, citizens; youth; seniors; small and medium businesses; cultural and tourism organizations from the participating regions.
